The Capital Development Board (CDB) is the construction management agency for Illinois government, overseeing the construction of new state facilities as well as renovation projects at 8,775 state-owned buildings. CDB is also responsible for the removal of hazardous materials from state-owned facilities, the replacement of leaking underground storage tanks on state property, and the remodeling of state buildings to meet accessibility standards. In addition, CDB works with the State Board of Education to administer grants for school construction and renovation to local school districts. It also administers grants to construct early childhood and community health care centers.

The agency is guided by a seven-member, bipartisan board that deliberates policy and direction and approves design professionals. The executive director is selected by the board to manage the agency and its employees.

Board Members: James Reilly, chair; Jodi Golden, executive director;

Illinois Commerce Commission

217-785-7456

Chicago: 160 N. LaSalle St., 60601
312-814-2850

The Illinois Commerce Commission's (ICC) mission is to balance the interests of consumers and utilities to ensure adequate, efficient, reliable, safe and low-cost public utility service. The commission contributes to the development of state and national policies on renewable and energy efficiency standards, smart grid electricity transmission and delivery and technological changes in regulated utilities.

The ICC staff analyzes and evaluates rate proposals; conducts hearings; inspects rail, electricity and natural gas infrastructure; responds to consumer complaints; monitors interstate and intrastate motor carriers for safety, fitness and insurance; and promotes competition among utilities and electric, natural gas and telecommunication service providers.

The bipartisan commission consists of five commissioners appointed by the Governor to five-year terms. The Governor designates a chair, and the commission employs an executive director who manages the agency's staff.

Members: Brien Sheahan, chair; Cholly Smith, executive director; Ann McCabe; Miguel del Valle; Sherina Maye Edwards; and John Rosales.

Chicago: 100 W. Randolph St., Ste. 14-100, 60601
312-814-6440

The State Board of Elections administers registration and election laws throughout the state. The board certifies to each county clerk the names of all candidates who have filed petitions to appear on ballots. Returns from both primary and general elections are filed with the board, and a canvass is conducted before results are certified.

The board also administers the Campaign Financing Act, which covers the public's right to know certain financial information about individuals and groups involved in political campaigns.

Board Members: Charles W. Scholz, chair; Ernest L. Gowen, vice chair; Steven S. Sandvoss, executive director; William J. Cadigan; Andrew K. Carruthers; Betty J. Coffrin; John R. Keith; William M. McGuffage; and Casandra B. Watson.

The Workers' Compensation Commission acts as the administrative court for workers' compensation cases. Commission arbitrators conduct hearings at numerous sites throughout the state. Arbitration decisions may be appealed to a panel of three commissioners. Cases may then be appealed to the Circuit Court, Illinois Appellate Court and Illinois Supreme Court (with limited exception).

The 10 members of the commission are appointed to four-year terms by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate. No more than six members may belong to the same political party. The chair serves as the commission's chief executive officer.
